

Biography

Department of the Army

Stephen J. Bond

Director, Intelligence Transition Team (ITT)
Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq
(MNSTC-I)

Mr. Steve Bond is the Director of the Intelligence Transition Team (ITT) in Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq (MNSTC-I) and Senior U.S. Intelligence Advisor to the Iraqi Ministry of Defense and Ministry of Interior. These duties include advising and mentoring Iraqi senior officers in the Directorate General of Intelligence and Security (similar to the U.S. DIA), the Joint Headquarters M2 (similar to the U.S. Joint Staff J2), the Director of National Information and Investigation Agency (similar to the U.S. FBI), the intelligence elements of the Iraqi Counter Terrorist Bureau/Command and the Military Intelligence Academy. He assumed these duties in March 2008. This is a Defense Intelligence Senior Level/Senior Executive Service position.

CAREER CHRONOLOGY:

- Deputy Director of Business Development for the Advanced Tanker Program and Air Mobility Systems, Integrated Systems Sector, Northrop Grumman Corporation in Melbourne, Florida from September 2004-February 2008.
- Retired from the US Army as a Colonel, August 2004
- U.S. Army TRADOC System Manager (TSM) for Joint STARS, Common Ground Station, and the Distributed Common Ground System-Army at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, July 2000-August 2004.
- Chief of a Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) Defense HUMINT Field Operating Base in the Pacific/Far East Region, July 1998-July 2000.
- Chief, Intelligence Operations J2, Joint Special Operations Command, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, July 1995-July 1997.
- Commander, 319th Military Intelligence Battalion (Operations) (Airborne), Fort Bragg, North Carolina, July 1993-July 1995.
- Intelligence Staff Officer, Special Operations Agency, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations and Plans, Headquarters, Department of the Army, the Pentagon, July 1991-July 1993.
- Executive Officer, 319th Military Intelligence Battalion (Operations) (Airborne), Fort Bragg, North Carolina and Saudi Arabia (Operations Desert Shield/Storm) from April 1990-July 1991.

- Chief, Intelligence Operations, G2, XVIIIth Airborne Corps, Fort Bragg, NC, August 1987-April 1989. During this period he also served as J2 Operations Officer/J2 Briefer, JTF-South during Operation Just Cause in Panama.
- Served in multiple Company Grade positions in Military Intelligence and Infantry Units, including Brigade S3 Assistant Operations Officer, MI Company Commander, Battalion S2, Infantry Company Commander, Reconnaissance Platoon Leader, and Rifle Platoon Leader.

COLLEGE:

- U.S. Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania, 1997-98
- Masters of Arts in History, University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas
- Bachelors of Science in History, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah

SIGNIFICANT TRAINING:

- Combat Development/Training Managers Course, Fort Belvoir, Virginia
- Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas
- Combined Arms and Services Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas
- Military Intelligence Advanced Course, Fort Huachuca, Arizona
- Infantry Officers Advanced and Basic Courses, Fort Benning, Georgia
- Ranger Course, Fort Benning, Georgia

AWARDS AND HONORS:

- U.S. Army Legion of Merit, 2004
- DoD Advanced Concept Technology Demonstration Operations Manager of the Year, 2001
- DoD Defense Superior Service Medal, 2000
- U.S. Army Bronze Star Medal, 1991

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS AND ASSOCIATIONS:

- Association of the United States Army

MAJOR PUBLICATIONS:

- “What is DCGS-A?”, Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin, Jul-Sept 2004.
- “Coalition Aerial Surveillance and Reconnaissance: The CAESAR Project”, Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin, Jan-Mar 2003.
- “A View From the High Ground”, Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin, Oct-Dec 2000.